Discipline Committee is constituted for the maintenance of discipline in the AIIS. The committee will ensure that students obey rules and remain orderly and peaceful in the pursuit of educational objectives/goals. A few simple principles—academic integrity, mutual respect and civility, personal responsibility—lie at the heart of our intellectual community. Each of us—students, faculty and staff—are pledged to live up to these standards and to support each other's efforts in this regard. We take these values seriously and the Office of AIIS is committed to helping first-year students, in particular, our newest community members, to understand how academic honesty, mutual respect and personal responsibility enable the ongoing success of our educational mission.
