Event Overview

There should be no special reason to celebrate women and their strength, but we need to remind ourselves of the hidden narratives that mark a woman's life. To honor women around the world, Amity Institute of Social Sciences organized a storytelling competition on 3rd March 2022 as part of its' celebration of International Women's Month. The event was organized under the guidance of Dr. Sanjana Sharma Marwaha. The unique twist of this competition was that it required the participants to think on the spot and narrate their story.
