OBJECTIVES

This programme combines management theories and concepts necessary for efficient and effective performance of people holding positions of responsibility in the Tourism and Hospitality industry thereby broadening their knowledge and capacity to manage.

This programme undertakes an exploration of the distinctive features involved in the management of Tourism and Hospitality together with a thorough understanding of the Workers' Rights Act and the Catering and Tourism Industry Remuneration Order (CITRO). This will empower the degree holders to manage these growing sectors more effectively and efficiently. It will also enable the degree holders to recognise and tackle the managerial challenges and responsibilities within the Tourism and Hospitality industry.
