CELEBRATION OF ANTI RAGGING WEEK

Anti-ragging week is an important initiative aimed at creating awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and promoting a safe and respectful campus environment.

The team under Anti- ragging committee visited our department. In their visit there was no activities of ragging found in Fine Arts Department.

The visit is an opportunity to enhance awareness and understanding of anti-ragging measures. It can also foster a culture of respect and responsibility within a department. Collaboration between your department and the Anti-Ragging Department is essential to creating a safe and supportive academic environment.
