Irrespective of insinuating role of rising competitive work life and transformed social life, the secret to a fulfilled achievement can be derived when state is ‘mindful’, and which leads to conscious deliberations. With rising expectations and surmounting challenges attaining clarity, purpose and outcome of every decision must be realized. Since ‘management’ is a purposive outcome and outward looking proactive and strategic process, it is important to that as sustainable organizations with a futuristic looking perspective, being mindful helps in maintaining psychological wellbeing for being healthy and contented.

Dear Readers,

“FINANCE IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF OUR LIVES.”
