

MULYA PRAVAH 2021-2022 Student Activity Report

ABS organized Guest Lecture on 2nd September, 2021 on the topic “Health and Hygiene Promotion Campaign” as part of Mulya Pravah activity.

Following were the objectives of the session :

- To create a sense of responsibility and spread awareness about health and hygiene during this time of pandemic.
- To give the audience to know about the emerging need of better health and hygiene facilities.
- To understand that a better health and hygiene benefits our own health and also impacts the lives around us.

The event was conducted on MS teams. Mr. Subhrajeeet Gautam, Founder – Umeed - A drop of hope (NGO) and Motivational was the Guest Speaker. He explained the different aspects and branches of health and hygiene to the students and how we should take care of it. Student presenters and Mr. Subhrajeeet Gautam covered different topics relating to Foods of India, Mental health, Physical health & Importance of Yoga. The attendees of the session also got the opportunity to ask Mr. Subhrajeeet Gautam regarding how and what necessary steps should be taken during this time of pandemic relating to health and hygiene.

The event was organized under the guidance of Dr. Ritesh Dwivedi, Faculty Coordinator.

Mainstreaming and Fostering Matri Bhawna

As part of Mulya Pravah activity, ABS organized a Panel Discussion on 10th September, 2021 on the topic “Mainstreaming and Fostering Matri Bhawna – Focussing North Eastern Region of India”.

Following were the objectives of the Panel Discussion :

- To create a sense of awareness focusing on various issues related to the North Eastern Region with respect to the other parts of India even in this era.
- To discuss how social acceptance & political issues affect the north east region of India.
- To understand how the development of the north eastern region may bring prosperity and development opportunities not only for the people living but also to the entire country as a whole.

Following were the Speakers :

- (i) Ms. Nashriat Sodial, Software Engineer Guwahati,
- (ii) Ms. Asmita Bhardwaj, President North-East Students Union, Vadodara,
- (iii) Mr. Lalduhthlana, Author, Zolitics: Indian Polity and Governance.

The event was conducted on MS teams, where the speakers explained the different issues and recent developments related to the North Eastern region. The speakers focused on how the people from other states have also started to understand the issues faced by the north eastern region and how the Government of each north eastern state is taking drastic steps for the growth and development of the people and the state, in general. Eminent speakers also covered different aspects related to how we should all have a sense of belongingness amongst one another and not discriminate any one on the basis of their state. The attendees of the session also got the opportunity to clear their doubts and questions regarding the topic.

The event was organized under the guidance of Dr. Ritesh Dwivedi, Faculty Coordinator.

Professional Ethics and Human Values for Business Sustainability

Amity Business School with an objective of inculcating Human values and ethical behavior as a part of Mulya Pravah initiative of UGC was organized an Expert talk on “Professional Ethics and Human Values for Business Sustainability” on 21st October, 2021 from 1600-1700 hrs at MS Teams.

Objective:

- To understand role of professional ethics and human values
- To understand implications of human values
- To understand industry practices in context to ethical implications and challenges.

Following were the speakers:

- * Mr. Girish Surdeo, L&D Professional, Ex-GM(HR) NTPC Ltd
- * Mr. Sudhakar Babu, DGM Vigilance, Bharat Petroleum Corpn Ltd.

Dr. Vijit Chaturvedi, Professor coordinated the Session from ABS.

Guest Lecture on Professional Ethics

A Guest Lecture on Professional Ethics under activities of Mulya Pravah was organised at Institution level on 9th October 2021 at 1:00 pm

Mr. Ashish Verma, Human Resource Manager, DLF was the Speaker for the session.

The lecture emphasized on the following points.

- Role of professional ethics
- Reasons for not being able to follow corporate ethics
- As freshers, what students need to keep in mind - Overall culture, expectations being a new employee
- The organisations expects from freshers
- Drawbacks for freshers in the current situation
- Importance of honing one’s skills discussed
- Examples of unethical behaviour
- What are good ethics, examples of good ethical behaviour
- Importance of doing the “right thing” in a corporate/work scenario
- Various articles regarding ethics discussed
- Importance of having the right attitude, willingness for improvement and introspection

- Being known for quality of work and doing the right thing
- Importance of internal confidentiality
- Questions by students addressed

Tapping Solar Energy towards Inclusive Green Growth in India

ABS organized a webinar on the topic “Tapping Solar Energy towards Inclusive Green Growth in India” by Dr Utparn Dubey, Managing Director - OORJAgram India Pvt Ltd on 4th February, 2022 on MS Teams as part of Mulya Pravah activity. The event was organized under the guidance of Dr. Ritesh Dwivedi, Assistant Professor on 4th February, 2022.

The Session was mainly focused on environment conservation intervention. OORJAgram is an alternative energy provider and it dreams to digitize India and aims to connect rural and urban India with the intervention of social intervention at its core. The Session helped the participants to understand the challenges prevailing on grassroots level for energy needs. Also it explores the current possibilities in rural economy.

The speaker explained the different issues and recent developments which are related to the environment. The speakers started the session with a motivational quote “Wherever we are right now we are doing a great job”. Session guest Dr Utparn Dubey shared a beautiful story how he started OORJAgram, global sustainability and development initiatives by intriguing into the 07 MDG - Millennium Development Goals (Now SDG) across SAARC nations.

The webinar created a sense of awareness focusing on the prime target of uplifted and transcended beyond barriers hindering its modernist growth with alternate energies.

Webinar - Mulya Pravah Activity

ABS conducted a Webinar as part of Mulya Pravah Activity on 12th April, 2022 The title of the activity was Communication for Change and Theme: Water Crisis in Southern India. The Webinar was conducted on MS Teams talking about the various issues related to the Water Crisis in Southern India along with various social issues prevalent in our country.

Ms. Smita Singh, Program Lead at ‘Goonj’ was the Speaker who focused on how these social issues can be resolved and the steps taken in order to create awareness about the same using various means such as advertisements to sensitize the attendees on the global water crisis widespread, especially focused on India. The Speaker also covered different aspects related to how we should all have a sense of acceptance and learn to empathize while doing our part, however little, which is enough to make a change in people’s lives for the better. The attendees of the webinar also got the opportunity to ask the speaker their doubts and questions regarding the topic. Dr. Ritesh Dwivedi, Asst. Professor coordinated the Webinar.

Through this webinar, students understood about the prevailing water crisis in our country, the importance of water and how it’s equally essential to preserve the same by making minor changes in our daily activities. They also learnt about the various issues faced by the people residing in rural parts of our country, how they as a community face many issues such as menstrual health related problems, child marriage, etc. which should have been long eradicated by proper communication, empathy and our will to make a positive change in our community.

The Mulyapravah Bustle : Imbibing and Enhancing Ethical Values for a Better Tomorrow

ABS conducted “The Mulyapravah Bustle : Imbibing and Enhancing Ethical Values for a Better Tomorrow” on 29th April 2022 from 3.00 pm – 5.00 pm. Following were the objectives of the Program:

- Highlighting the criticalities of Ethical workplace
- Reaping benefits of nurturing ethical practices at workplace
- Applying ethical practices on mental well being

Program Details:

Time	Topic	Session Facilitator
3:00 pm – 4:00 pm	Session on “Building and Sustaining Ethical Work Place” (online session)	Mr. Devender Sharma, AVP & Head – HR, Parijat Industries
4:00pm – 5:00 pm	Workshop on “Ingrain Ethical Values for Influencing Prerogative Culture” (offline session)	Mr. Kapil Kumar, Senior HR Professional

Learning Outcome of the Session :

- Deep sense of importance of core values within an outside
- Encouraging value chain of ethical practices in the environment
- Motor reproduction of ethical values in action