

Report on Session titled ‘EU-India Strategic Partnership’

Date : December 13, 2024

Understanding the relevance of Global partnership and role of European Union, the students of Amity Business School, Amity University Uttar Pradesh attended session on EU-India Strategic Partnership with address of HE Mr. Herve Delphin, Ambassador of the European Union to India and Bhutan on December 13, 2024 at United Service Institutions of India (USI), New Delhi.

The students came to know about different perspectives and opportunities of partnership and role of EU in facilitating it. The event was organized by United Service Institution of India. The EU has a unique setup of institutions, bodies, and agencies that work for the common interests of the EU and European people. These include the European Commission, which formulates community policies, monitors compliance with community decisions, and oversees the execution of community law. United Service Institution of India (USI) is a national security and defence services think tank based in New Delhi, India. It describes its aim as the "furtherance of interest and knowledge in the art, science and literature of the defence services". USI operates centres for research in various areas of national security.

The learning gained will help students to broaden their vision and understanding for global perspective and professional development.

