

Bio-data

Mr. L. N. NARASIMHAN is presently working as Asst. Director, in Physics Division, Forensic Science Laboratory, Rohini. Post graduated in physics with specialization in electronics and worked as a lecturer cum co-coordinator of UGC sponsored program. Further he worked as Technical officer in Director General of Quality Assurance, Ministry of Defence for 11 years.

Having 20 years of experience in handling various types of physical exhibits like fiber, metal items, industrial fabrics, Defence supply items, electronic items like hard disk, mobiles, DVR and NVR, secrete gadgets. He has been nominated as one of the member for framing the standard working procedures for physical sciences compiled by Directorate of forensic Sciences. He has reported more than 500 crime cases related to audio-video/speaker identification. During his career visited variety of crime scenes related to hanging, falling of person, collapsed buildings, road accidents, murder, fire accidents etc. As a Training Manager/HRD Manager of Forensic science laboratory Delhi he has trained IPS, DANICS/DANIPS officers, Judiciaries, police officers and various university students. presently he is perusing the research work involving various dialects of South India and its effect on Forensic speaker identification.