

Dr. Sangeeta Sharma

- Working as Professor, Dept. of Neuropsychopharmacology, Institute of Human Behaviour & Allied Sciences (IHBAS), Delhi, India
- Qualification & Certification
  - M.D (Pharmacology), QM&AHO, MBA (HCA)
  - The Harvard Medical School Quality Leadership Program (HQUAL),
  - The Balridge Excellence Framework for Health Care Award
  - Certified External Assessor NQAS
- Honorary President, Delhi Society for Promotion of Rational Use of Drugs (DSPRUD),
- Actively working in the forefront of promoting rational use of medicines with special focus on antimicrobial use, medication safety, quality in health care
- Rich and diversified professional and managerial experience in healthcare
- She has conducted ~200 workshops to build capacity for doctors, nurses and pharmacists
- She has written several books, One of her pioneering work is a book “Standard Treatment Guidelines: a Manual for Medical Therapeutics” which is in its 6th edition (under print). First edition was published in 2002. Several Indian states have adopted/adapted this book.
- She is State Nodal Officer for AMR Containment, Delhi State.
- She has several publications in international and national journals of repute.