

17 year old Innovators from Amity School, Pushp Vihar will soon be Employers through their Start Up project PEEKABOOK

Thursday, September 22, 2016

Report by India Education bureau, New Delhi: Students declared Global Winners for their Start Up Idea during "Future Young Entrepreneurs Competition" in Berlin.

Contributing to the "Start up India" initiative by Prime Minister of India, five student Innovators from Class XII of Amity International School, Pushp Vihar- Medha Mathur, Ansh Aggarwal, Yash Gupta, Manan Rai and Nikhil Kalra have made the Amity family and Nation proud by winning the Finals of "Future Young Entrepreneurs Competition" for their innovative Start up Idea- PEEKABOOK last week, organized by Goethe Institute, Germany and co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union at Berlin. PEEKABOOK is a business model that will facilitate the purchase of second hand books between the customer and the retailer online by partnering with second hand book retailers all over Delhi.

Expressing her joy and exhilaration over the historic achievement of the students, Dr. Amita Chauhan, Chairperson, Amity International Schools said, "We are proud to have such brilliant students who have brought laurels to the country with their ingenuity and hard work. Science and Innovation is the foundation of a robust country and all Amity Schools have been promoting the spirit of innovation and entrepreneurship right from early age amongst the students. The honor and glory brought by these students is a testimony to our dedication in promoting Innovation and Entrepreneurship amongst Amity students. We encourage our students to think out of the box and challenge them to carve a future path for themselves"

Sharing her views, Mrs Ameeta Mohan- Principal, Amity International School, Pushp Vihar said that right from the beginning of the Competition in the year 2015, she had complete faith in the ability, technical ingenuity and dedication of the students and was sure that they would surely accomplish this feat and make the country proud. Calling it a stupendous achievement by the students to win the

17 year old innovators from Amity school, Pushp Vihar will soon be Employers through their startup Project PEEKABOOK