ATTENDANCE NOTICE

You have already attended three weeks of classes for the Even Semester. We sincerely hope that you are monitoring your course wise attendance percentage through Amizone. In case you are finding any difficulty related to attendance do not hesitate to come and meet me to resolve the issues.

All of you are aware that International Moot Court Competition is going to be held from 27-29th of January 2017 at the institute. All of you are required to attend the INAUGURAL and VALIDICTORY function for the development of networking and Pear Learning. It is pertinent to mention that your attendance during these three days shall be taken into consideration as a "Training Component" of attendance.
