

ASIA-PACIFIC CONGRESS OF VIROLOGY
AMITY INSTITUTE OF VIROLOGY AND IMMUNOLOGY
AMITY UNIVERSITY, NOIDA, INDIA

Letter of Invitation

Dear Colleagues,

The Indian Virological Society (IVS) and the congress organizers cordially invite you to the Asia-Pacific Congress of Virology at Amity University, Noida, India during 17-20 December, 2013. This mega event is an excellent occasion for eminent virologists, young researchers and students to present their scientific data and interact with a wide audience of renowned scientists in the fields of medical, plant, veterinary, and aquatic virology. We invite you to submit your abstracts for oral/poster presentation and register yourself, colleagues and students for participation in this first Asia-Pacific Congress of Virology.

We look forward to welcoming you at the campus of this university located in the vicinity of New Delhi, the capital city of India.

Thanks,

Anil K. Prasad
