Important Guidelines for Authors/Delegates

Technical Guidelines

- The paper should be minimum of 5 pages . An additional charge of Rs. 1000/- per page will apply for any pages beyond the 6th-page. The maximum page limit is 8 pages.
- Incorporate all the suggestions as suggested by the reviewers (if any), in the Camera Ready Paper.
- Accepted and presented papers that comply with all applicable IEEE and conference requirements will be considered for submission to the IEEE Xplore Digital Library
- For detailed instructions for author of conference proceedings, Follow the official IEEE conference paper template: https://www.ieee.org/conferences/publishing/templates

Registration Guidelines

- Each paper, in order to be published in the conference proceedings and final program, requires at least one author to be registered.
- If multiple authors of a paper wish to attain separate certificates, separate registration is mandatory for each author under the category "Co-Author Additional Certificate".
- If an author has got more than one accepted paper, each paper must be registered separately.
- This is obligatory to present the paper during conference
- Digital Certificate will be provided to the author registered for the online mode.
- Only registered authors can participate in the conference and present their papers.
- In case the registered author is unable to present the paper, another co-author can present (With prior intimation). In such cases a certificate and registration kit will be provided to the presenter only.
- For registration, only full time scholars and students will be considered as student. Students should send the scanned copy of the Identity Card along with the registration form.
