

Amity School of Fashion Design & Technology, AUMP

“Workshop on Thai Art”

18th January 2024 (Thursday)

The Amity School of Fashion Design and Technology Department at Amity University Madhya Pradesh has organised a workshop on 18th of Jan 2024 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. on the topic ‘Thai Art’. The resource person of the workshop was Ms. Nupur Shrivastava a Pedilite instructor. The workshop coordinated by Ms. Madhavi Tomar & Ms Vidhu Gupta, Assistant Professor at Amity School of Fashion Design and Technology.

The workshop began with the introduction of the expert, Mrs. Nupur Shrivastava, a Fevicryl Instructor. The workshop aimed to teach a new craft i.e. Thai Art. Ms. Nupur explained that Thailand is a well-known country of the Best Craftsmanship and Skilled Artisans. Thai art on canvas is a beautiful and intricate form of art that often features traditional Thai motifs, symbols, and cultural elements. It is commonly created using various techniques such as painting, drawing, and mixed media. Thai artists often use vibrant colors, intricate patterns, and detailed designs to depict scenes from Thai mythology, nature, and daily life. The use of gold leaf and intricate detailing are common techniques used in Thai art on canvas, adding a sense of luxury and opulence to the artwork.

Ms. Nupur taught students to start with a black base color on the canvas, add a golden tree, and create texture using a golden highlighter. The students had a great time and made decorative articles on the canvas. It was a fantastic experience for them. Total 30 students participated in the workshop enthusiastically, and the workshop boosted their creativity, giving them valuable exposure.

Glimpse of the workshop

