PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

The foundation for your journey in justice

The Bachelor of Laws/LLB (Hons) is a three-year undergraduate programme designed to develop graduates with a deep understanding of law and its application in real-world contexts. The programme combines academic rigour with practical skill development to build critical reasoning, analytical ability, professional communication, and ethical competence, preparing students for successful careers in a variety of legal and policy contexts.

AIMS & OBJECTIVES

- Legal Knowledge: Develop understanding of the principles, values, and substantive law that underpin justice and civil society
- Research & Analysis: Critically analyse legal issues, conduct self-directed research, and evaluate doctrinal and policy matters
- Problem Solving: Apply legal knowledge to complex real-world or hypothetical scenarios with reasoned conclusions
- Professional Competence: Build communication, ethical awareness, and professional skills aligned to legal practice
- Continuous Development: Reflect on learning, identify knowledge gaps, and engage in ongoing personal and professional development
