Rise & Radiate

Amity Institute of Education (AIE) hosted the "Be Your Own Boss" personality development program on March 14, 2024. This initiative, co-organized by Whisper & Gillette Venus India in collaboration with Right Side Story LLP, aimed to empower women to pursue their entrepreneurial dreams.

The program provided a platform for aspiring women entrepreneurs to develop the skills and confidence necessary to navigate the business world. The curriculum likely covered topics such as:

- Entrepreneurial Mindset: Cultivating a go-getter attitude and identifying business opportunities.
- Business Planning: Developing a solid business plan outlining goals, strategies, and financial projections.
- Marketing & Branding: Building a strong brand identity and effective marketing strategies to reach target customers.
- Financial Management: Understanding financial basics for managing business finances effectively.
- Networking & Support: Building connections with other female entrepreneurs and accessing mentorship opportunities.

Collaboration for Empowerment:

The collaboration between Whisper & Gillette Venus India and Right Side Story LLP demonstrates their commitment to supporting women's aspirations. Amity Institute of Education's role in hosting the program further highlights the importance of educational institutions in fostering women's empowerment initiatives.

Impact and Future Prospects:

The "Be Your Own Boss" program at AIE likely equipped participants with valuable skills and knowledge to launch and manage their own businesses successfully. Future follow-up programs or mentorship initiatives could further support these women on their entrepreneurial journeys.

Financial Management Workshop

On the 15th of March 2024, Amity Institute of Education hosted a compelling workshop on financial management, featuring esteemed guest speakers from STC Noida, Shri Umesh Chandra Joshi, Chief Manager and Faculty In-Charge, and Mrs. G Agila, Senior Manager and Faculty. The event aimed to shed light on the pivotal transition from the academic sphere to the professional world, emphasizing the significance of financial independence, particularly for women.

Mr. Umesh Chandra Joshi commenced the session by articulating the importance of systematic investment plans (SIPs) and mutual fund investments. He elucidated how SIPs and mutual funds could serve as lucrative avenues for wealth creation and financial stability. Furthermore, Mr. Joshi emphasized the necessity of planning for retirement, stressing the significance of pensions to ensure independence during old age. His insights provided attendees with a roadmap for long-term financial security, advocating proactive measures to mitigate future dependency. Mrs. G Agila took the stage to address the prevalent gender disparity in financial matters. With an impassioned delivery, she highlighted the pervasive societal discrimination that compels women to seek financial advice predominantly from men. Mrs. Agila underscored the importance of women taking control of their financial destinies by cultivating a robust understanding of investment instruments. She urged attendees to open savings accounts and consider investing in mutual funds as pragmatic steps towards financial empowerment.

Throughout the workshop, attendees were enlightened about the nuances of financial management, with a particular emphasis on empowering women to take charge of their financial futures. The speakers' expertise and advocacy resonated deeply with the audience, fostering a sense of agency and determination among participants to embrace financial independence.

In conclusion, the financial management workshop organized by Amity Institute of Education served as a catalyst for profound insights and transformative discussions. The invaluable guidance provided by Shri Umesh Chandra Joshi and Mrs. G Agila illuminated the path towards financial autonomy, inspiring attendees to embark on a journey of fiscal prudence and empowerment.
