EVENT OVERVIEW

The community outreach program was conducted for the women of society by the female students of Amity Institute of Social Sciences, on the occasion of International Women's Month.

The program was conducted in an NGO named Manav Mandir Gurukul at Sarai Kale Khan, New Delhi on 6th March 2022 under the guidance of Dr. Sanjana Sharma Marwaha.

The team of volunteers consisted of 8 students led by student coordinator Vishruta Vasanthrao who took the responsibility to guide and support the young females in various aspects of life.

EVENT OBJECTIVES

The purpose behind organizing the program was to reestablish the significance of women's power in this world.

The objective to conduct this program was to spread awareness about the various aspects of living that create a healthy and informed life and to increase sisterhood within the female community

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

The program started at 12 pm till 3 pm. Students had interacted with a group of 20 young females between the ages group of 15- 21.

The program was focused on spreading social and personal awareness along with the feeling of sisterhood, hence the approach happened personal, wise and involved heartfelt interactions.

Topics like sexuality, domestic life, health and hygiene, rights and policies, creativity and education/career opportunities were discussed. To awaken the creativity of the young women, students conducted an art and drawing session which they named "Paint Me Free".

There were tears of sadness and happiness as experiences were being remembered and shared. This showcased the rawness, warmth and love this space held for everyone.

It was at last celebrated with a dance session where all the chains of hesitation and shame were thrown away and bodies swinging to the music of freedom and life.
