EVENT OVERVIEW

The Pledge taking ceremony was organised by the Amity Institute of Social Sciences as a part of the International Women's Month Celebrations.

The event was conducted on 8th March 2022 by student coordinators Asim, Riya Das and Nihal Vijay under the guidance of the faculty coordinator, Dr Sanjana Sharma Marwaha.

The team consisted of 6 student Volunteers who engaged with the distribution of the cue cards, giving speeches on "break the bias" in the classrooms and arranging the cue cards on the charts for the display.

The event turned out to be an eye-opener for many and was successful in spreading a new perspective towards gender bias.

EVENT OBJECTIVES AND HIGHLIGHTS

The objective of the Pledge ceremony was to spread awareness of gender bias and its implications.

It also involved Volunteers discussing with the students and faculty about aspects of “break the bias” and its significance.

The Event included the undertaking of the pledge on cue cards by the students and faculty and a brief speech on gender bias.

ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED

The pledge taking ceremony began with a brief speech on International Women's Day and "Break the Bias" followed by the undertaking of the pledge on the cue cards.

The student coordinators along with volunteers divided themselves into a team of 3 to conduct the pledge taking ceremony in various classrooms simultaneously.

Photographs was taken by Asim, Ishrita and Nihal.
