MESSAGE FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

My Dear Students,

Ragging can be a menace for any student or academic institution. Directives have been issued by the Honorable Supreme Court of India, State Governments and the UGC on measures to be adopted to prevent ragging and punish those who indulge in or abet ragging in anyway. Ragging is considered a serious, punishable offense.

You must be extremely careful in your actions, expressions and demeanor to avoid being held guilty under various provisions of Anti Ragging Directives & Regulations. You need to be aware that your any impulsive act may be construed as 'Ragging' and must be avoided. All your activities are closely monitored and you are under constant surveillance as Amity University has put in place various measures to make it a ragging free campus, as per directives of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. You are hereby forewarned on eventualities if found engaged/indulging in any kind of ragging.

While you must be respectful to your seniors, you also need to be careful from being subjected to ragging by seniors and in such events; you need to promptly inform the Authority concerned in the University, without any fear and hesitation. The details of their contact numbers can be found in this booklet and in the leaflet given to you.

I shall advise all my students to be focused on their studies, engage in quality pursuits in fulfillment of their career goals and refrain from all unpleasant activities which may be construed as ragging. Make your association with Amity University fulfilling, enriching and purposeful.

Senior students have an onerous responsibility to help the fresher's, their juniors, to make their stay in Amity University, very comfortable and pleasant. The seniors must act as friends, philosophers and guides to their juniors so that a seamless, positive interaction is possible while maintaining the legacy of your University as a 'Ragging Free Campus.'
