MESSAGE FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

Dear Amitians,

As per the directives issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, State Governments, and the University Grants Commission (UGC), ragging is recognized as a serious and punishable offense that poses a threat to the safety and dignity of students and the academic environment. All universities and institutions are mandated to implement stringent measures to prevent the occurrence of ragging and to take strict disciplinary and legal action against those found guilty of indulging in or abetting such activities. Ensuring a ragging-free campus is not only a legal obligation but also a vital step in fostering a safe, respectful, and inclusive educational atmosphere.

The university has established an Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell to uphold Amity's commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus. Senior faculty members have been designated as members of Block-wise Anti-Ragging Squads, who, in coordination with the Proctorial Board, actively monitor student conduct and ensure that no incidents of ragging occur within the university premises.

In compliance with the UGC directives, all students are mandated to submit an online anti-ragging undertaking on the UGC portal at the beginning of every odd semester. Upon submission, a reference number is generated, and a confirmation email is sent by the UGC. Students are required to enter the reference number in the designated place and upload either the PDF of the confirmation email or a screenshot displaying the reference number on Amizone as part of the registration/re-registration process.

You must be extremely careful in your actions, expressions and demeanor to avoid being held guilty under various provisions of Anti Ragging Directives & Regulations. You need to be aware that your any impulsive act may be construed as 'Ragging' and must be avoided. All your activities are closely monitored and you are under constant surveillance as Amity University has put in place various measures to make it a ragging free campus, as per directives of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. You are hereby forewarned on eventualities if found engaged/indulging in any kind of ragging.

While you must be respectful to your seniors, you also need to be careful from being subjected to ragging by seniors and in such events; you need to promptly inform the Authority concerned in the University, without any fear and hesitation. The details of their contact numbers can be found in this booklet and in the leaflet given to you.

I shall advise all my students to be focused on their studies, engage in quality pursuits in fulfillment of their career goals and refrain from all unpleasant activities which may be construed as ragging. Make your association with Amity University fulfilling, enriching and purposeful.

Senior students carry the important responsibility of ensuring that freshers feel welcomed, safe, and comfortable as they begin their journey at Amity University. They are expected to serve as friends, mentors, and guides offering support, encouragement, and valuable advice to their juniors. Such positive engagement not only fosters mutual respect and camaraderie but also upholds the proud legacy of Amity University as a 'Ragging-Free Campus'. Creating a harmonious and inclusive environment is a shared duty, and seniors play a crucial role in setting the tone for a respectful and supportive university culture.

I Welcome you to Amity University Uttar Pradesh and wish you all the very best in your Academic journey at Amity.

Prof. (Dr.) Balvinder Shukla
Vice Chancellor, AUUP
