

WIPRO WINS THE PRESTIGIOUS NASSCOM DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION AWARD 2016

Wipro has been conferred with the NASSCOM Corporate Award for Diversity and Inclusion 2016 in the category of the Best Program in Gender Diversity

Wipro has been recognized for its Women of Wipro (WoW) mentoring program. The award was presented at the recently held NASSCOM Diversity and Inclusion Summit 2016 in Bangalore.

The WoW Mentoring Program and other gender diversity initiatives are steps towards building an inclusive and diverse leadership team at Wipro. The mentoring program is a global developmental program wherein high potential women employees in middle management are mentored by top leaders in the organization. The program aims to build an inclusive and diverse leadership team by enabling middle management women employees through overall development - especially perspective development, networking and competency building under the able career guidance of top management leaders.
